AVID NATIONAL CONFERENCE

November 28–30 • San Diego, CA • Manchester Grand Hyatt

Prepare every student to live a life of possibility.

Attend AVID National Conference and gain a deeper understanding of how educators can work collectively to create thriving learning cultures that activate student agency and success.

Choose Your Own Adventure

Choose from three flexible formats to tailor your conference experience.

AVID National Conference Concurrent Sessions

Choose from nearly 100 sessions focusing on incorporating rigor in the classroom, breaking down barriers, aligning the work, and advocating for students—providing actionable takeaways for administrators, district leaders, teachers, and counselors.

AVID Path to Schoolwide® Professional Learning

AVID Path to Schoolwide is coming to National Conference, offering high-engagement professional learning and valuable resources to effectively support all students in reaching their full potential and preparing for a successful future in college and career.

AVID ElevateXP® Virtual Professional Learning

Not joining us in person? AVID has you covered with AVID ElevateXP, a virtual and supportive professional learning experience that provides educators and administrators a wealth of new strategies, tools, and resources that enhance and amplify best practices.

Our Keynote Speaker

Dr. Manny Scott

Scholar, Speaker, and Author

Dr. Manny Scott is an inspiration to millions worldwide as an original Freedom Writer whose story is depicted, in part, in the hit movie, Freedom Writers. Despite a troubled upbringing and a seemingly hopeless future, Dr. Scott has overcome unimaginable obstacles and achieved incredible success. He has dedicated his life to helping others, traveling up to 300 days per year for over 20 years to inspire and empower educators, students, and leaders.

What You'll Find at AVID National Conference

Variety and Flexibility

With nearly 100 concurrent sessions—most offered twice for ultimate flexibility—attendees can “choose their own adventure,” creating a learning pathway personalized to their goals, interests, and needs.

Energy and Practical Insight

AVID National Conference is a powerful, mid-year boost, reinvigorating both mindset and educational practice with actionable insights and takeaways that can be applied immediately as administrators and educators head into the second half of the school year.

Inspiration and Networking

As a conference by educators for educators, AVID National Conference is intentionally designed to provide opportunities for interaction and motivation, with a focus on cultivating new ideas and a deeper understanding of how educators can work collectively to create thriving learning cultures that activate student agency and success.
